

Life

FRIENDS OF LSP FOR TREES

The Friends of Liberty State Park funded $10,000 worth of new trees that were planted this spring. The new trees include weeping willows and several were planted throughout the park in Jersey City, including the playground and picnic area on Freedom Way. Pictured, from left: Jeanne Becker, Maria de Wakefield, Eliza Wright, and members of the NJ Tree Foundation's Tree Planting Crew.